DEFEAT FORETOLD.
The Kentucky Irish American is informed that a wager of $1,000 is offered that Senator Beckham will be defeated in the coming election, this proving the old adage that "straws show which way the wind blows." Here is an opportunity for Beckham's friends who are not yet convinced that the voters are determined to be rid of Beckham and the Holy-Rockham combine in Kentucky politics.

boys and girls in the parochial schools of this State. Statistics furnished by the Superintendent of Public Instruction or the Board of Education of Detroit show that it costs $90 per annum to educate a child in non-high school grades, without counting the cost of the buildings, etc. Suppose for a moment, over the auditorium, that the effort to represent the effort—suppose you said: 'We are going to make you send your children to our school.'
"I am very proud, my friends, of the fact that I graduated from the University of Michigan twenty-five years ago. I look back upon my life in Ann Arbor with the greatest pleasure. I believe everybody who went there in those days will remember, over the auditorium, that famous quotation from the ordinance of 1787: 'Religion, Morality and Knowledge being essential to good government and the happiness of mankind—schools and the means of education shall forever be encouraged.' The ordinance of 1787 was the fundamental law of this territory—Ohio, Indiana, Wisconsin and Illinois, and the ordinance of that year was passed before the constitution of the United States was ratified. That clause in the ordinance of that year has been quoted time and again, and is now a part of the constitution of the State of Michigan—incorporated in the last revision of that constitution. The occasion for this encouragement of education has been a beacon light to the men and women of Michigan.
Education, in the last sentence, is the thing that counts. Since your schools are giving that education—since they are doing it properly and since you are not compelling us to go to your schools, I say, remember that ordinance of 1787—remember education is necessary to good government and the happiness of mankind and see to it that this effort to introduce bigotry into this country is stopped once and forever. Do not depart at any time from that slogan —'Schools and the means of education shall forever be encouraged.'

CHINA THEIR FIELD.
The six Maryknoll priests were still sailing towards Hong Kong when nine other American missionaries left San Francisco last Saturday on the Shenyo Maru for Shanghai. Six Sisters of Providence, two priests and a student of philosophy are going to Ho Nan with the Right Rev.
Joseph Taconi, for the work of higher education. The Sisters, making the first Foreign Mission contingent of American nuns, were chosen among 350 volunteers of the Sisters of Providence at St. Mary of the Woods, Indiana. They are Sister Marie Gratha, Sister Eugene Marie, Sister M. Margarita, Sister M. Patricia, Sister M. Silas and Sister Claire, all talented and learned women, trail blazing for Christ, with never look at home again. The Rev.
Joseph Clougherty, the Rev. Howard Lawton and Joseph Kerin likewise go pioneering in a new American organization for Chinese higher schools.

HARDING'S POSITION.
The position of those Americans who believe that we went into the war for several high ideals, including the rights of small nations, was not very much improved by Senator Harding's declaration that he would as soon permit England to dictate to us our treatment of the Philippine Islands as that we should have the impertinence to tell England what she should do with Ireland. It must be very comforting to these gentlemen with Irish names who are shouting for Harding, to be told that their fathers and mothers, their sisters and brothers, are on the same level as a lot of head-banging biggers, and should receive the same treatment.

TOOTH WASH.
An excellent tooth wash is made by a dash of lemon in water. It removes tartar and sweetens the breath.
